

Etheric Containment

The Etheric Aura extends approximately 1” from the surface of the skin around the entire physical body and ideally is not ‘infected’ with the energies of a client who is being treated.

Infusing a flow of Prana to fill the Etheric Aura enables the practitioner to retain the quality of his or her energy and minimize taking on the lower quality Etheric energy of unwell clients.

Run the flow before each client session.

